WHAT A HEADACHE MEANS.

Mr. Prescott Tells Women How to Stop Them.

The Better Portion of Humanity Said to have them Often.

The Great Amount of Good That Very Really May be Accomplished.

Headaches!

It has been estimated that 15 per cent. of all the people who have nervous trouble claim headache as their principal symptom.

They are more apt to occur in those who lead a sedentary, studious, indoor life, and particularly in those who overwork mentally at some one thing without variety.

And women have them oftenest.

They are without question the most common concomitants of systematic diseases.

BREWER LOCALS.

State Street has been receiving improvements in the shape of a coating of gravel over it.

A storm threatened to come yesterday, but the day passed without its materialization.

Mr. Arthur Rogers left on the steamer Katabdin yesterday, for Camden to spend some weeks.

Mr. H. B. Bass and children left on the Katabdin, yesterday, for Northport, to spend some time.

Capt. Stowers, of Sandy Point, and his daughter Miss Nellie Stowers, came to the city yesterday for a short visit.

Master Willie Maling and Master Vernon Maling, who have been visiting at Cape Hozley, have arrived home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wallis have been in St. John, N. B., for a time, visiting with their son, Mr. John Wallis, of that city.

Mr. Jotham Pierce has had some improvements made to the concrete in front of his residence, on Holyoke street.

Some work in the country now has commenced in the repairing of various implements used in haying operations.

Rev. B. B. Merrill, pastor of the First Congregational church, will take his annual vacation in August this year, and will be gone four weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Sawyer and Mrs. Capt. William Crosby leave on the steamer Henry Morrison this morning for a two days' trip to Bar Harbor.

The steamer Jena, which has been used as a ferry boat since last spring, is now hauled up near the Brewer clip, being painted and receiving repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Telford and daughter, Leah, who have been spending a week at Northport, arrived home on the steamer Lewiston yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Charles Euden goes to Portland today to join his wife and son who have been visiting at Northport, and with them will make a stay in the Forest City.

Mr. George M. Prim, of this city, who is in charge of the music at the Woodville, for Portland, came up river yesterday on a short business trip, returning in the afternoon.

Some Brewer people were among the number who participated in the excursion of the Essex Street Free Baptist Church of Bangor, on the steamer Sedgwick yesterday.

It was not so warm yesterday as on some of the preceding days, but in the forenoon the mercury hovered pretty near the 90 mark in the shade, in some places in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Holyoke went to Camden yesterday on the steamer Katabdin, and will remain during the remainder of the season.

Misses Fannie and Lottie Hardy went to Camden yesterday on the steamer Katabdin, to join their sisters who preceded them, and spend a time at the family cottage there.

Mr. Charles Telford, son of Mayor Telford, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is now slowly improving, as his many friends will be greatly pleased to learn. All will hope to see him well again in the shortest possible time.

Mr. E. M. Maling this morning presents the contrast between his goods and prices. The quality of the former is "way up," and the latter "way down," he says.

He keeps fresh raspberries and strawberries for the table, and has ice cream and cold soda milk always had at his store.

A number of the farmers hereabouts will finish haying this week if good weather continues to be our lot. The excellent condition of the weather during the past week or two has been welcomed by all those interested in the hay crop, and operations have gone along swimmingly in most places.

An auction sale of the personal property of the estate of the late M. J. Patten was held at his late home on Main street yesterday forenoon, by Mr. C. B. Pearl, of Bangor, auctioneer, and a large number of people were present. The bidding was spirited, and the horses, teams and other items of property were disposed of at good prices.

This is the season of the year when the traders notice a decrease in their trade on account of the leaving of so many people for the seashore to spend more of their time. The census is progressing well and hardly a day passes but some take their departure for their favorite summer resort to escape the heat of the city and substitute the cooling breezes from over the salt water.

Not a great amount of interest seems to be taken just at present in the game of tennis, the hot weather apparently diverting the young people to amusements of a less active nature. A few months ago, however, the look for a good season for this pastime was bright, as a new court was made for the city and the players were looking forward to and talking about the summer's games, but for the above mentioned reason and also owing to the fact that many of the young people are at the seashore, the outlook for a tennis summer here is not so bright as it once was.

One of the most interesting and popular of the season, after people begin to look back from their summer homes and the heat of the city is probably again the scene of a most pleasant and exciting contest.

A correspondent writes: Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Crowell, of Norway, Me., are visiting Mrs. Crowell's mother, Mrs. Frank Shier.

Mrs. E. G. Knowlton, of Old Town, is passing a few days with her father, Mr. S. G. Spaulding.

Mr. Elmer Storey, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever, is recovering.

Mr. D. C. Torrey, of Minneapolis, Minn., is in town, visiting her brother, C. R. Drew. Mrs. Torrey went west sixteen years ago and this is her first visit to her native State.

Much complaint is being made at the bad condition of the roads through this town and also through North Brewer.

The stone has not been removed this season as the law requires that they shall be, and consequently the traveling is very disagreeable being made dangerous.

Master Curtis Drew, of Littleton, Mass., the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson, of Bangor, passed the Sabbath with friends in town.

The Cook Restaurant.

Some years ago I was stopping in a western town. During the night, a fire alarm was sounded and a crowd quickly gathered at the scene of the conflagration, which was in a building occupied by a grocer. The basement being used as a restaurant, the firemen had a crowd of people streaming in from the burning building, which flooded the floor and soon began to trickle down to the restaurant below.

The proprietor, who was asleep, was awakened by a crowd of people streaming in from the burning building, which flooded the floor and soon began to trickle down to the restaurant below.
